COUNTY POINTS.

GERMANTOWN.

S. F. Pollock made a visit recently to Illinois.

J. W. Elliott, is having a part of his house improved.

Robt. Pinkard took a cargo of fertilizer to Maysville, on Monday and disposed of it, realizing an x or two for it.

E. T. Currens delivered a lecture Monday night, on the growth and development of Texas, and Dakota.

Rev. Thomas Hutchings delivered a lecture on temperance Saturday night and preaches a gospel temperance sermon on Sunday night. Mr. Hutchings is an able speaker. He is not as flowery as the admired temperance speaker; but his arguments are founded on solid facts. Dot.

WASHINGTON.

Gardening is the order of the day.

Wm Beckley, the veritable nimrod, is bagging the fish now.

Dr Alex Hunter is painting up his premises. We wish it would strike all the town people.

Charles Downing is buying all the tobacco about our neighborhood. By the way, he is a very nice man too.

The trustees are talking of putting a fence around the old court house. Hope they will not take it out in talk.

John Kirk, our fellow-citizen, got the Republican nomination for Jailor. We are loth to give him up.

Mrs Ann Metcalfe and the Haweses sold their fine tobacco crop for $18 all round.

Mrs H Clift's funeral was preached in the Reform Church on Saturday by Rev Wm Hall. She was a most estimable lady.

Rev Mr Riley, of Mayslick, preached in the Baptist Church here on Sunday afternoon. HEATHCOTE.

MAYSICK.

Abe Gooding, a student of Farmdale Military Institute has returned home to attend the wedding of his sister.

Miss Maria Warder is on the sick list.

Miss Nettie M. Orr is unable to attend to her school duties.

A. G. Wilson, is confined to his room.

Mrs. McLaughlin, is having a nice fence put around the front of her residence.

Quite an exciting time occurred here Monday, among the colored population in the marriage of a runaway couple. The contracting parties were Miss Alice Williams and Mr. Chas. Banyon. The young lady was to have been married Thursday the 13th inst., to another man, but she "skipped" out with a handsome man.

Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Mitchell, gave quite a pleasant and social dining at their residence on Thursday, the 6th inst., in honor of the Misses Blatterman's who with their parents left Friday night, for Denver, Colorado, their future home, leaving many sad hearts behind. We herewith append a list of the guests. Miss Fannie and Katie Blatterman, Fannie Owens, Lou, McGranaghan, Bessie Green and Lizzie Cox and Messrs. William January, Robert Blaine and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Blatterman, of Maysville. Dr. M. H. Davis and Miss Hattie Forman of Mayslick. The day was passed off very pleasantly with excellent music both instrumental and vocal and the whistling quartet was "too too" utterly fine.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC.

By request of owners I am authorized to announce that there will be a big show of stallions in the town of Mayslick, on Saturday next the 15th day of April at two o'clock, p. m. at which time and place the best stallions of Mason and adjoining counties will be exhibited. All lovers of good stock are invited to be present and bring their horses.

E. M. GROVES.

MT. GILEAD.

Tobacco plants have come up.

The farmers have commenced planting corn. Seed corn is one dollar per bushel and scarce at that price.

Miss Mollie Watts' spring term of school has commenced at this place.

Miss Fanny Harn of Fayette county, is visiting the family of her uncle Mr Sanford Becket of this locality.

Capt Gray & Morrison, the contractors of the Mt Gilead and Lewisburg road, commenced work to-day (that is Monday.)

There have been two weddings since our last report. Mr Tully Applegate to Miss Belle Elmore of West Union, Ohio, and Mr Ben Harn of Fayette county, to Miss Mary Hixson of this place.

Mr William Enoch says that he was visiting at Covington, and not his wife, as we stated in our last report. She has been at Covington since the 3d of July under treatment of the Doctor; the mistake was not intentional.

As I took in Orangeburg Sunday, I will attempt to describe the journey. I found the people enjoying good health. I don't think that I ever saw the people of this vicinity as forward with spring work. Wheat looks better than I ever saw it at this time of the year. Most of the farmers are preparing to put out large tobacco crops this season. The spring school is under the care of Miss Belle Rollins a very competent teacher. I stopped at the Anno house and found aunt Mat as clever and as lively as ever. "DAN."

MURPHYSVILLE.

Miss Mary Paul is visiting her brother, W C Paul in Campbell county.

Mrs P E Laytham paid a visit to friends near Orangeburg last week.

R C Bland bought eight head of fat cattle from James Kirk.

Mrs Lizzie Ford and Miss Tolle Clift, from the neighborhood of Lewisburg, returned home on last Thursday after a week's visit here.

There seems to have been quite a stir in the tobacco trade in the surrounding country during the past week, as several sales have been effected. Dan Mayher sold at $18 per hundred; Tim Duckley at $18.50; Patrick Morgan, $16.50; Wm Hunter, $15, and Patrick Turney at $16. The lowest price that has been paid was by E L Gault & Son, who purchased Alexander Whither's crop of tobacco at $8 for the leaf and $4 for the trash.

Henry Alexander, colored, who resides near town is erecting a stable. We have not learned the name of the architect of whom he purchased the plan for his building.

Rev Thomas Hanford preached an Easter sermon at the Methodist Church on last Sabbath, which was peculiarly appropriate; his text being the following words: "If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are above." Mr. Hanford announced on last Sunday that his next sermon, which will be preached at the Methodist Church on the fourth Sabbath in this month, will be a memorial service, commemoration of the life and character of the late Henry Wadsworth Longfellow. The eulogy will doubtless be well worth listening to, as Mr Hanford is an interesting speaker, and the subject will be full of interest to all lovers of literature, Longfellow having been thought by most persons to have been the greatest poet that America ever produced.

Died on last Thursday night Mrs Nancy Clift, in the eightieth year of her age. After funeral services at the Christian Church in Washington, by Elder Wm Hall on Saturday morning, her remains were interred in the cemetery at that place. Like a sheaf fully ripe, she has been gathered into the garner, where she will be safe alike from the driving blasts and beating rains of life, which all encounter however pure or good. M. E. P.

MILLWOOD.

Tobacco plants are doing well and a great many have purchased the artificial jimson bloom to destroy the fly. They sell for $1 a dozen.

Richard Wells made a flying trip to Cincinnati last week.

Thos. Luttrell sold his tobacco to Chambers for $18.

Mrs. Harriet Cook, is refreshing her house with a coat of paint.

Winn Wells has moved at last.

Mrs. D. Heddleson, returned home last week from Missouri.

Miss Maggie Weedon is preparing to return to Virginia, soon.

Mrs. Henry T. Cord, was thrown from her buggy in Flemingsburg, on last Thursday, and received a severe fall spraining her shoulder. The buggy came uncoupled.

We are well supplied with fresh fish and beef twice a week by Chas. Cook, of Lewisburg, and Bert Wood, of Helena.

Miss Amelia Hughes is quite ill.

The spelling match here on Friday night last was well attended. The children all did well, especially Miss Katie Dougherty, a beautiful little Miss of thirteen years of age. The doctor should be proud of her.

A protracted meeting is to begin at Mill Creek, Christian Church by Rev. Mr. Wilson, of Winchester, about the last of April or the first of May.

Robert Wood, W. O. Cord's clever clerk, will remain another year with him. Bob is quite a lady's man.

Mr. Henry T. Cord, is suffering with rheumatism.

Miss Ada Rice, daughter of Harvey Rice, who has been very low with pneumonia is thought to be out of danger, and with the careful nursing of Dr. Dougherty, she will no doubt be up soon.

Mrs. Mamie Worthington, of near Germanmantown, is home on a visit.

Mrs. Julia Cord, has one hundred and forty chickens and still there is more to follow.

There is a very full bloom on the plum, peach and pear trees, and we do not think fruit of any kind is injured.

Miss Nannie Calvert, an interesting young lady is living with her sister, Mrs. Lulie Luttrell.

Miss Eva Hord, is to be one of the attendants at Ed. Berry's wedding which will occur on the 15th inst. at Mayslick.

R. M. Harrison, of Helena Station, agent, is in Cincinnati, this week. H. C. Hawkins, fills his place.

This is a village of good morals and steady habits. Since the days lengthened and encroached upon the darkening hours, many of our people seek their couches in the twilight's early glowing and I suppose rise with the lark's first note. LEN.

At Salem, Ind., the jury in the case of Maggie Briscoe against Omri Thompson on last Saturday evening assessed her damages at $8,000 for breach of promise to marry.
